Dignitary at Ray

Former N.D. Gov. John Moses (holding paper) stands with Harry Peyton on the right and an unidentified man on the left on the west side of the Ray underpass in the late 1930s or early 1940s. Then event was noting the completion of U.S. 2 from Portland, Maine, to Portland, Ore. U.S. 2 passes through Ray. Williams County is celebrating its centennial this year, and readers are invited to submit their favorite pioneer photos to the Herald for publication.
